KIPP St. Louis PUBLIC SCHOOLS

There’s a fire!

Evacuation:.

- Emergency Command Team will report to their zone and begin checking for scholars and teachers exiting the building.
- All teachers will follow their exit path and have a red Emergency Bag and Class roster.
- Once outside, the admin team member will ensure the exit door is closed and announce, “[zone name], all clear” (i.e. 2nd floor north, all clear). Signaling there are no teachers or scholars left in that zone.

There’s a fire!

Final Communication:

- If a false alarm, Ms. Moore will silence the alarms and call Security.
- The Ms. Moore is the point person for all emergency personnel.
- The Ms. Moore is the person who calls all clear for everyone to return into the building and ensures all exterior doors are secure.

There’s a fire!

Re-Entry: Get scholars and staff back inside the building as safely and quickly as possible!

STUDENTS WILL:

- Wait for command to re-enter the building
- Quietly follow their teacher’s route into the building and directly back to the classroom
- Resume learning

TEACHERS WILL:

- Wait for command to re-enter the building
- Lead their students into the building and directly back to the classroom

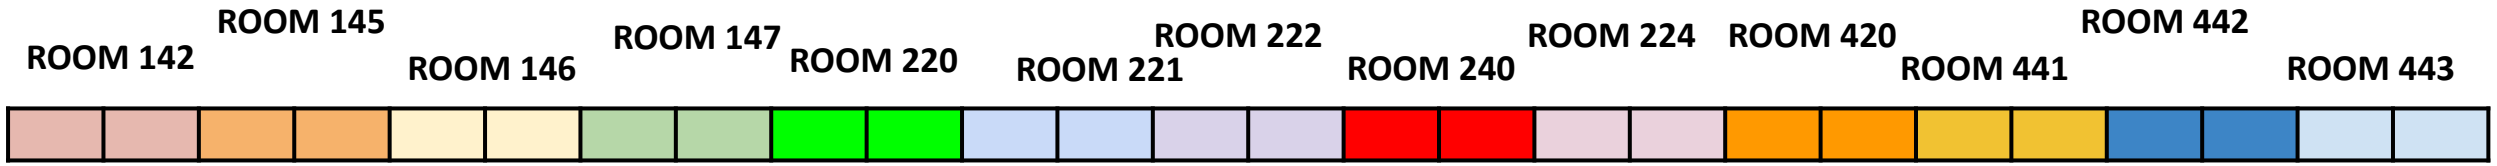
*Please be aware that there could be people at the bus stop on Delmar Ave. Keep an eye on students!



Rescue Rooms

For students or staff who are injured and not able to get out of the building, the following rooms will serve as rescue spaces:

- Fourth Floor: School Leader’s Office 462 - Gray-Ross during a class or —---- during advisory
- Third Floor: Room Library - Savage
- Second Floor: Room 263 - Biney

Google Chat for Updates

Staff, keep your phone handy for any quick updates

Updates will come via Google Chats in the KHS Emergency Group

- NEVER use this Google Chat Group unless we are in an Emergency

Bottom Line

The safety of scholars and staff is first priority in the event of an emergency and evacuation.
