Why Safety & Security Matters

KIPP St. Louis High School
COLLEGE PREPARATORY PUBLIC SCHOOL

- Emergency Preparedness: Safety drills in schools prepare students and staff for potential emergencies, minimizing panic and confusion during real incidents.
- Life-Saving Skills: Drills allow practice of evacuation, first aid, and safety protocols, equipping individuals to respond effectively and potentially save lives.
- Risk Reduction and Awareness: Conducting drills raises awareness, identifies vulnerabilities, and helps implement measures to create a safer learning environment.

Attendance Matters

47

Attendance Matters:

KIPP St. Louis High School
COLLEGE PREPARATORY PUBLIC SCHOOL

- We utilize Powerschool to take attendance.
- Teachers are to take attendance every period within the first five (5) minutes.
- Teachers are champions of creating joyful spaces for our students and accurately account for students in their classroom everyday.
- When a teacher does not take attendance, this compromises student safety & school-wide funding.
  - Attendance is calculated on a minute by minute basis.
    - Every minute counts!

Classroom and Building Cleanliness

50

Classroom and Building Cleanliness

KIPP St. Louis High School
COLLEGE PREPARATORY PUBLIC SCHOOL

- Cleanliness is essential for promoting a healthy and safe environment for students and staff.
- When classrooms, common areas, and facilities are tidy and well-maintained, students feel more motivated and engaged, leading to improved academic performance.
- Our whole-school will need to support the health of our facility and community to keep a conducive learning environment.

51

51

Classroom and Building Cleanliness

KIPP St. Louis High School
COLLEGE PREPARATORY PUBLIC SCHOOL

- School Operations will conduct weekly classroom walkthroughs to ensure our schools are maintaining clean school environments.
- These walkthroughs help identify areas of improvement, promote effective teaching and learning in the classroom.

52

52

Classroom Checklist:

KIPP St. Louis High School
COLLEGE PREPARATORY PUBLIC SCHOOL

- Classroom checklists will ensure your classroom is ready for the following morning. These action items will help ensure our classrooms stay clean and critter free during session.
  - Wipe all tables/desks
    - Seats on top of desks
    - All materials neatly put away in their home (pencils, headphones, crayons, books, manipulatives, etc.)
    - Clear floor of debris (paper, crayons, food, etc.)
    - This should happen throughout the day immediately when it happens.
      - Set the expectation, enforce it 100%.
    - Throw away extra snacks or store them properly.
      - Do not leave food in red emergency bags.
    - Smartboard/doc cam turned off.
      - Chromebooks must be stored in the cart, charging, with neat cables.

53

53

Classroom Chromebook Carts & Management:

KIPP St. Louis High School
COLLEGE PREPARATORY PUBLIC SCHOOL

- Classrooms are equipped with Chromebook carts.
- Chromebooks are cared for by the teacher.
  - If you need support for your chromebook cart or devices please reach out to the ASLO.
- Chromebooks are expensive assets and need to be cared for by staff and students.
- Chromebook carts are to be organized each day by the teacher.
- Weekly Chromebook checks will be administered by the Ops team.

A Couple Of Important Notes

55

Curriculum Materials & Book Room

KIPP St. Louis High School
COLLEGE PREPARATORY PUBLIC SCHOOL

- Curriculum and Instructional resources are now housed in room 144.
- Materials MUST be checked out by the ASLO or OC
- Contact the main office or Ms. Moore if you are in need of resources.

56

56

New Main Office Area

- The vestibule has created a new but very compact main office area, that is less conducive to visitor traffic.
  - Please make copies in one of the copy areas on the 2nd or 4th floors
  - IF a copier is down, please contact the main office
  - Refrain from sending students down for various concerns. Use your phone list, google chat or email to communicate student needs and get the best resolution.

57
