Employee Handbook Violations from 5/31/2024:

- Statement of company policy/master agreement on this subject:
  - Violation of Punctuality and Attendance policy p.19
  - Violation of Job Performance, items # 1, 11 p. 38-39
  - Violation of Standards of Conduct items # 1, 2, 3, 32 p. 39-40
  - Staff members are expected to arrive promptly each day. Late staff arrivals disturb school routines and negatively impact the school day. If you intend to arrive to work after the start of the scheduled workday, you should inform your School Leader/Manager or Assistant School Leader prior to your regular start time unless an emergency prevents you from doing so.
  - If you must be absent for any reason during work hours, you should inform your School Leader and Manager no later than 6:00 a.m. Please refer to the "Paid Sick Leave" section of the handbook for more details.
  - Leaving a message with a fellow staff employee or with the answering service is not considered (to the leadership team or management) proper notification. You have to notify your direct manager.
  - HR reserves the right to require proof of illness, injury or accident, including a doctor's statement(s) or notice(s), for any temporary disability.
    - This has not been honored for all absences.
  - Repeated absences, excessive absences (excused or unexcused) or a pattern of absences are unacceptable job performance.
    - If you are absent for two (2) consecutive days and have not notified your immediate supervisor of your whereabouts and reason for absence, KIPP STL may assume that you have abandoned your position and you may be treated as having voluntarily terminated your employment with KIPP STL.
  - Please keep in mind that tardiness and excessive absences are considered unprofessional behavior that can result in disciplinary action, up to and including, termination.
